DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

For its complaint against defendants ClimateRight, LLC, Midwest Equipment Sales, LLC, and James Cline (collectively “Defendants”), plaintiff IQAir North America, Inc. (“IQAir North America” or “IQAir”) alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This is an action for trademark infringement in violation of 15 U.S.C. Sections 1114 & 1125, unfair competition under Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code Sections 17200 et seq. and the common law of California. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to at least 15 U.S.C. § 1121(a), 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a) and (b).

9       2. This court has supplemental jurisdiction over the claims in this 10 complaint that arise under state statutory law and the common law of the State of 11 California pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1337(a) because the state law claims are so 12 related to the federal claims that they form part of the same case or controversy and 13 derive from a common nucleus of operative facts.

14       3. This court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because 15 Defendants have conducted systematic and continuous business within California
16 and because they have directed their unlawful business activities towards California
17 and have caused injury to a California resident within California.

18       4.     Venue is proper under at least 28 U.S.C. §1331(b)(2) and/or (b)(3)
19 because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims 20 occurred in this judicial district. Defendants have performed acts in this district that 21 constitute trademark infringement and unfair competition by selling products in this 22 district that infringe upon IQAir's registered trademark.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

20        11. IQAir specializes in technology including without limitation air 21 purifying units and air filters for commercial, residential, medical and industrial 22 applications that help protect people from airborne pollutants. IQAir implements 23 this technology in residential, commercial and public buildings throughout the 24 United States, including in this district, and internationally.

25        12. IQAir's manufacturing and production facility is located in 26 Switzerland. By using very high quality components, a dedicated team of skilled 27 craftsmen and women, and state-of-the-art manufacturing processes, IQAir is able to

1 build very high quality air purifying products which are sold in the United States,
2 including in this district.

3       13. IQAir is a family company created by the Hammes family with roots
4 going back to 1963 when Manfred Hammes and his brother Klaus Hammes, a 5 mechanical engineer, introduced a simple filter system for residential users in 6 Germany. The company was later relocated to Switzerland.

7       14. By the Spring of 1998, the IQAir system HealthPro® Plus was 8 manufactured at the Swiss manufacturing facility. At least as early as 2000, IQAir
9 purifiers became available in the United States.

10      15. IQAir's products have received numerous awards and acclaim in the 11 industry. In 2002, IQAir became the first room air cleaner to receive a H12/13
12 certification for its HyperHEPA® filters, typically available in multimillion dollar 13 cleanroom filtration systems.

14      16. Consumers Digest Magazine has repeatedly named the IQAir
15 HealthPro® Plus as the "Best Buy" for home air purifiers in the Premium category.

16      17. ICLEEN Entwicklungs- und Vertriebsanstalt für Umweltprodukte, a 17 Liechtenstein corporation, is the owner by assignment of United States Trademark 18 Registration No. 3,343,313 for the mark IQAIR for use at least in connection with 19 air purifying units and air filters for commercial, domestic, medical and industrial 20 applications in International Class 11. This registration issued on November 27, 21 2007, and is based on first use in commerce on March 18, 1996. This registration is 22 valid, exists on the Principal Register of the United States Patent and Trademark
23 Office ("USPTO") and is incontestable pursuant to Section 15 of the Lanham Act
24 (15 U.S.C. Section 1065). A copy of the registration is attached as Exhibit A. IQAir
25 North America is the exclusive licensee of the IQAir mark in North America.

26      18. IQAir has been selling air purifying units, air filters, and replacement
27 filters in the United States for many years. Over that time, IQAir has sold millions
28 of dollars worth of these products. IQAir has extensively promoted its air purifying

1 product nationwide through advertisements, packaging, on its Internet web site, and 2 in social media.

3       19. IQAir has been careful, skillful and diligent in the conduct of its 4 business and has maintained uniform standards of high quality in its goods. As a 5 result of these efforts, the IQAIR® trademark has acquired public acceptance and 6 reputation, thereby creating public goodwill that inures to IQAir's benefit.

7       20. Upon information and belief, notwithstanding and with full knowledge
8 of IQAir's business and IQAir's rights in the IQAIR® trademark, Defendants have 9 conducted business and have offered for sale and sold, in this district and elsewhere,
10 air purifier products using a mark that is confusingly similar to the IQAIR® 11 trademark. Defendants have and are offering for sale nationwide, in this district and 12 elsewhere in the United States, air purifier products that directly compete with the 13 IQAir air filters. Defendants are selling these products using the mark "iAirQ"
14 which is confusingly similar to IQAir's IQAIR® trademark.

15       21. Defendants' use of a mark that is confusingly similar to IQAir's mark
16 has been and is without the consent or authorization of IQAir.

17       22. Defendants publicly offer or purport to offer air purifier products using 18 the "iAirQ" mark. For example, Defendants control and operate an interactive 19 website, www.climateright.com, in which customers from the United States, 20 including customers located in this district of California, can directly purchase the 21 infringing air purifier products from Defendants. Defendants also offer for sale and 22 sell air purifier products on the nationwide sales platform Amazon.com.

23       23. Upon information and belief, Defendants deceive consumers into 24 believing they are purchasing original IQAir air purifier products when in fact
25 consumers are actually purchasing products sold by Defendants. Upon information 26 and belief, consumers are likely to mistakenly believe that ClimateRight and/or the 27 "iAirQ" products are sponsored by, authorized by, approved by, or otherwise 28 affiliated with IQAir when in fact, they are not.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Infringement of Federally Registered Trademarks

24. IQAir re-allege and incorporates by reference each of the allegations of the paragraphs set forth above as though fully set forth herein.

25. The IQAIR® registered mark is inherently distinctive, as evidenced by the registration on the Principal Register of the USPTO, its continued use in commerce by IQAir, and acknowledgement by the USPTO of the mark's incontestability pursuant to Section 15 of the Lanham Act.

9        26. Defendants' use of a confusingly similar mark in this district and 10 elsewhere, in connection with the sale of air purifier products, is likely to cause
11 consumer confusion that Defendants' goods and services emanate from or are 12 sponsored or authorized by IQAir.

13        27. On information and belief, notwithstanding and with full knowledge of 14 IQAir's business and rights in the IQAIR® trademark, Defendants adopted and 15 continue to use a mark that is confusingly similar to the IQAIR® registered mark 16 with complete disregard of IQAir's rights and with the intent to trade on the 17 goodwill that IQAir has created.

18        28. The above-described acts of Defendants constitute infringement of a 19 registered trademark in violation of 15 U.S.C. Section 1114, in that Defendants have 20 used in connection with their goods a trademark that is likely to cause confusion or 21 mistake or to deceive the public that Defendants' goods or services are authorized, 22 sponsored by, or affiliated with IQAir, and Defendants have caused such goods to 23 enter into interstate commerce that may be regulated by Congress.

24        29. IQAir has been damaged and is likely to be damaged in the future by 25 Defendants' infringement by reason of the likelihood that prospective purchasers
26 and purchasers of Defendants' goods will be confused as to the source, sponsorship, 27 or affiliation of Defendants' goods.

1       30. Defendants have unfairly profited from the acts alleged in this
2 Complaint and will be unjustly enriched in the future unless and until such conduct
3 is permanently enjoined.

4       31. By reason of Defendants' acts alleged herein, IQAir has suffered
5 damages including damages to its business goodwill.

6       32. By reason of Defendants' acts alleged herein, IQAir has suffered and 7 will suffer irreparable harm in the future unless and until Defendants' conduct is
8 permanently enjoined.

9       33. Defendants' acts alleged herein were willful and taken in conscious
10 disregard of IQAir's rights.

11       34. This is an exceptional case and IQAir is entitled to an award of its 12 attorneys' fees and costs.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Trademark Dilution, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)

16 of the paragraphs set forth above as though fully set forth herein.

17 ||| 36. The IQAir mark is distinctive, well known and famous.

18       37. Defendants are diluting the distinctiveness of the IQAir mark by 19 marketing and selling goods using a mark that is confusingly similar to the fa-
20 and distinctive IQAir mark.

21       38. Upon information and belief, Defendants engaged in the conduct
22 alleged herein willfully, with full knowledge of IQAir's business and rights in the 23 IQAIR® trademark, intending to trade on IQAir's reputation and/or to cause
24 dilution of the famous and distinctive IQAir mark.

25 || 39. The acts alleged violate 15 U.S.C. §1125(c).

26       40. Defendants have unfairly profited from the acts alleged herein and will
27 be unjustly enriched in the future unless and until such conduct is permanently
28 enjoined.

41. By reason of Defendants' acts alleged herein, IQAir has suffered damages including damages to its business goodwill.

42. By reason of Defendants' acts alleged herein, IQAir has suffered and will suffer irreparable harm in the future unless and until Defendants' conduct is permanently enjoined.

43. This is an exceptional case and IQAir is entitled to an award of its attorneys' fees, costs and any other recoverable expenses.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

California Trademark Dilution, California Business & Professions Code § 14330

11       44. IQAir re-alleges and incorporates by reference each of the allegations
12 of the paragraphs set forth above as though fully set forth herein.

13 45. The IQAir mark is distinctive, well known and famous.

14        46. Defendants are diluting the distinctiveness of the IQAir mark by 15 marketing and selling inferior air purification products using a mark that is 16 confusingly similar to the famous and distinctive IQAir mark.

17       47. Upon information and belief, Defendants are engaged in the conduct
18 alleged herein willfully, with full knowledge of IQAir's business and rights in the 19 IQAIR® trademark, intending to trade on IQAir's reputation and/or to cause
20 dilution of the famous and distinctive IQAir mark.

48. Defendants' acts alleged herein violate California Business and Professions Code § 14330.

23       49. Defendants have unfairly profited from the acts alleged herein and will
24 be unjustly enriched in the future unless and until such conduct is permanently
25 enjoined.

26       50. By reason of Defendants' acts alleged herein, IQAir has suffered
27 damages including damages to its business goodwill.

51. By reason of Defendants' acts alleged herein, IQAir has suffered and will suffer irreparable harm in the future unless and until Defendants' conduct is permanently enjoined.

52. This is an exceptional case and IQAir is entitled to an award of its attorneys' fees, costs and any other recoverable expenses.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

State Statutory Unfair Competition

53. IQAir re-alleges and incorporates by reference each of the allegations of the paragraphs set forth above as though fully set forth herein.

54. The Court has jurisdiction over this Claim pursuant to 27 U.S.C.
Section 1367.

12        55. Defendants' use of a mark that is confusingly similar to IQAir's mark
13 in conjunction with Defendants' distribution, and sale of products as complained of 14 herein is likely to, and is intended to, cause confusion to purchasers and potential 15 purchasers of IQAir's products, and to unfairly compete with IQAir.

16        56. On information and belief, Defendants' use of a mark that is 17 confusingly similar to IQAir's mark, was done willfully, with full knowledge of 18 IQAir's business and rights in the IQAIR® trademark.

19       57. By the acts complained of herein, Defendants have engaged in unfair 20 competition as contemplated under Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code Sections 17200 et seq.

21       58. Because of Defendants' acts complained of herein, IQAir has been 22 actually damaged and suffered irreparable harm, and will continue to suffer
23 irreparable harm until enjoined by order of this Court.

25 been unjustly enriched and will continue to be unjustly enriched until enjoined by 26 order of this Court.

15 and will continue to be unjustly enriched, to an extent not presently ascertained,
16 which irreparable harm and unjust enrichment will continue until enjoined by order
17 of this Court.

18       65. Defendants' conduct is and has been intentional, willful, malicious, 19 oppressive, and in reckless disregard of IQAir's rights, entitling IQAir to an award
